BARGAIN;—an advantageous purchase." (Century Dictionary.) "Bargain;—a word of disrepute, to be eyed with suspicion." (Present Popular Opinion.) The difference between them is the difference between a fact and a fraud.

One of our ambitions is to rescue this word from the degradation it has reached through persistent misrepresentation by proving its dignity and honor when truthfully used. It has never suffered through us, and we insist that due honor be paid it here. Here are bargains;—real ones. To them we ask your earnest and respectful attention.
